The “Why” for Vendors

- Reduction of distribution fixed cost
- Buffering stock
- Credit lines & Credit collection capabilities
- Marketing capability
- Need of an aggregator of their products into complex multi-vendor solutions

The “Why” for Resellers

- Outsourcing of warehousing and shipping on their behalf
- One-stop-information gathering point
- One-stop-shopping opportunity
- Easiness of doing business against dealing directly with vendors
- No minimum quantity needed to be a valued partner

The “Why” for Retailers and E-Tailers

- “Fulfilment deals” with Vendors on top selling items
- Category management for accessories
- Home delivery capabilities for White Goods and Large TVs
- E-Tailers use Distributors as a one-stop-shopping for the “Long Tail” of products

Future

- A similar trend towards a “Distributor Friendly” environment is now under development White Goods
- «As a Service» models will require further more the capability of integrating in a single easy-to-use interface for resellers the Consumption models of multiple vendors

Why A Distributor: high quality assets

Inventory Risk Mitigants

Stock Protection Clause

Provided by the vast majority of Vendors in which they assume the risk of inventory devaluation arising from purchase list price reductions planned by the Vendor itself.

Fulfilment deals stock protection

Vendors might allow the Distributor to purchase products based on a sales forecast agreed upon between the Vendor and the Retailer/Corporate Reseller. Vendors might guarantee the Distributor, either contractually or customarily, that those products will be sold with a predefined margin, essentially shielding the Distributor from the inventory risks that might arise from the need of reducing the sales price or disposing of unsold products.

Stock Rotation Clause

On specific product categories, i.e. software or pre-packaged services, the Distributor is periodically allowed to ship back obsolete stock in exchange of new products of similar value.

Factoring & Credit Insurance Policies

Credit insurance

Large and medium sized distributors routinely apply contracts with top-rated Credit Insurance Companies shielding the risk of default of debtors with deductibles typically between 10% to 15% of the insured value.

Factoring/Securitization programs

Trade receivables might be sold “without-recourse” to factoring entities or conduits of a trade receivables securitization program, typically major commercial banks but sometimes Vendor financing companies as well. When factoring/securitization happens, being a true-sale, no deductibles are involved and the credit risk is entirely transferred to the factoring company.

Risk taking

Sometimes distributors might takes some credit risk on their books by issuing a Credit Limit that exceeds the value of the Credit Insurance coverage.

Credit Notes

The Industry operates with a significant amount of Credit Notes accruals at any given end-period

Vendors routinely operate with commercial programs that envisage significant amounts of price adjustments for multiple reasons such as:

- End-period accruals for target achievements;
- Stock protection;
- Pass through.

Customers as well are entitled to price adjustments such as:

- End-period accruals for target achievements;
- Pass through;
- Co-marketing funds.

Accounting treatment

At any given quarter-end accruals are made to account for the credit notes pending reception from Vendors and credit notes pending issuing to customers.

According to the Group accounting policies periodically, typically at year end, a revision of the old accruals is done and the adjustments booked to the Gross Profit of the period.

Historically, given the accounting policies in place, this effect is positive and contributes to a spike in Gross Profit margins at year end.

2021 OUTLOOK AND FINAL REMARKS

- ❑ 2021 kicked off with a solid backlog in PCs and a demand of mobile computing devices, both notebooks and tablets, still very lively which market analysts expect to continue most likely for the entire H1
- ❑ On PCs and even on printers (segment with decreasing demand) there is still low product availability, due to shortage of components which is forecasted to last at least until late spring
- ❑ The recovery in infrastructure spending which took place in Q4 2020 is expected to continue in H1
- ❑ There is however a noticeable resilience in the cloud model and in cybersecurity spending
- ❑ Public investments in education, digitalization of public administration and health will probably be a major driver of market performance in H2
- ❑ We maintain favourable mid-term expectations due to strong fundamentals of ICT market and growing distribution centrality in the tech business system
- ❑ IDC 2021 Prediction: «Growth in digital investments will outstrip the GDP recovery by a factor of 3»
- ❑ In May 2021, we will present the guidance for the year and the three-year strategic plan with the related economic and financial objectives
