The “Why” for Vendors

- Reduction of distribution fixed cost
- Buffering stock
- Credit lines & Credit collection capabilities
- Marketing capability
- Need of an aggregator of their products into complex multi-vendor solutions

The “Why” for Resellers

- Outsourcing of warehousing and shipping on their behalf
- One-stop-information gathering point
- One-stop-shopping opportunity
- Easiness of doing business against dealing directly with vendors
- No minimum quantity needed to be a valued partner

The “Why” for Retailers and E-Tailers

- “Fulfilment deals” with Vendors on top selling items
- Category management for accessories
- Home delivery capabilities for White Goods and Large TVs
- E-Tailers use Distributors as a one-stop-shopping for the “Long Tail” of products

Future

- A similar trend towards a “Distributor Friendly” environment is now under development White Goods
- «As a Service» models will require further more the capability of integrating in a single easy-to-use interface for resellers the Consumption models of multiple vendors

Why A Distributor: high quality assets

Inventory Risk Mitigants

Stock Protection Clause

Provided by the vast majority of Vendors in which they assume the risk of inventory devaluation arising from purchase list price reductions planned by the Vendor itself.

Fulfilment deals stock protection

Vendors might allow the Distributor to purchase products based on a sales forecast agreed upon between the Vendor and the Retailer/Corporate Reseller. Vendors might guarantee the Distributor, either contractually or customarily, that those products will be sold with a predefined margin, essentially shielding the Distributor from the inventory risks that might arise from the need of reducing the sales price or disposing of unsold products.

Stock Rotation Clause

On specific product categories, i.e. software or pre-packaged services, the Distributor is periodically allowed to ship back obsolete stock in exchange of new products of similar value.

Factoring & Credit Insurance Policies

Credit insurance

Large and medium sized distributors routinely apply contracts with top-rated Credit Insurance Companies shielding the risk of default of debtors with deductibles typically between 10% to 15% of the insured value.

Factoring/Securitization programs

Trade receivables might be sold “without-recourse” to factoring entities or conduits of a trade receivables securitization program, typically major commercial banks but sometimes Vendor financing companies as well. When factoring/securitization happens, being a true-sale, no deductibles are involved and the credit risk is entirely transferred to the factoring company.

Risk taking

Sometimes distributors might takes some credit risk on their books by issuing a Credit Limit that exceeds the value of the Credit Insurance coverage.

Credit Notes

The Industry operates with a significant amount of Credit Notes accruals at any given end-period

Vendors routinely operate with commercial programs that envisage significant amounts of price adjustments for multiple reasons such as:

- End-period accruals for target achievements;
- Stock protection;
- Pass through.

Customers as well are entitled to price adjustments such as:

- End-period accruals for target achievements;
- Pass through;
- Co-marketing funds.

Accounting treatment

At any given quarter-end accruals are made to account for the credit notes pending reception from Vendors and credit notes pending issuing to customers.

According to the Group accounting policies periodically, typically at year end, a revision of the old accruals is done and the adjustments booked to the Gross Profit of the period.

Historically, given the accounting policies in place, this effect is positive and contributes to a spike in Gross Profit margins at year end.

- Sales of Advanced Solutions grew by 57% compared to H1 2020 (+67% in Q2 2021 compared to Q2 2020), in a market^(*) that has changed its course and after a -4% in Q1 grew by 13% in Q2
In detail, the growth in the first half was:
 - Hardware (networking, storage, servers and others) +9%
 - Software, Services, Cloud +2%
- The integration process of GTI Group in Spain and of Dacom and idMAINT in Italy contributed 88.0 M€ to sales
- XaaS ("Everything as a Service"), which currently means Cloud, in H1 2021 up to 63.2 M€ (9.4 M€ in H1 2020) growing by 572%. Excluding the contribution deriving from the acquisition of the GTI Group, the growth was 128%
- The commitment to guarantee the best customer satisfaction has translated into a 33% growth in H1 2021 in the revenues of IT resellers, in a market that has grown by 11%, allowing to further strengthen the market share in the customer segment with the highest margin
- Moving to PC demand and more specifically to consumer demand, the second quarter showed the first signs of a slowdown, as the Group predicted:
 - First of all, for a difficult yoy comparison (the month of June last year saw a strong bound in the volume of revenues because of smartworking and e-learning related purchases following the lockdown)
 - Then because consumer demand began to shift towards other sectors more related to leisure
 - Product availability has improved slightly but has still been constrained for some of the most important categories
 - Finally, the price increase policies began to affect the sell through

- ❑ In light of the permanent uncertainty linked above all to the evolution of consumer demand
- ❑ In light of the difficulties related to the prolonged level of shortage of electronic components, which will affect the availability of PCs but also of other product categories and which we do not expect will be resolved by the end of the year
- ❑ In light of the uncertainty created by the increase in PCs price that could continue to have an impact on consumer demand, although a boost could come from the launch of Windows 11 and the renewal of the installed base with low-end operating systems
- ❑ Waiting for public and corporate investments in infrastructure linked to the massive multi-year government investment plan connected to the NextGenEU program, to have a significant impact (at the moment the effects are not yet well countable)
- ❑ We prefer not to further raise the profitability estimates for the year 2021, reconfirming an Adjusted EBITDA exceeding 80 million euros while waiting to verify the evolution in particular of product availability over the next two months
- ❑ Meanwhile, looking at the medium term, the Group is working and concentrating investments on product lines with higher margins and accelerating the process of transforming the business model towards “as a service” solutions (Cloud, DaaS and MPS)
- ❑ More than on further optimization of the cash conversion cycle, we will insist on increasing profitability
